

Daily Diary, O/RR, 1 April 1951 (AD/RR information unless otherwise stated)

I/R:

After a preliminary conference with Mr. [redacted] of Foreign Documents Division, a second meeting was held with Mr. [redacted] of FDD to discuss the POSSIBILITY OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A CENTRAL INDEX FILE CONTAINING BRIEF ABSTRACTS OF RUSSIAN BOOKS. The books in question are located primarily in the other IAC agencies either in the various department offices or in the agency libraries. Up to this time there is no way of determining just what Russian books are presently available in the United States. The problem of establishing a central index of non-IAC owned Russian books was not discussed at this time. FDD WILL UNDERTAKE A PRELIMINARY SURVEY as to what would be required to establish the central index file of IAC agency books. (3 Apr)
